125 Years Old!

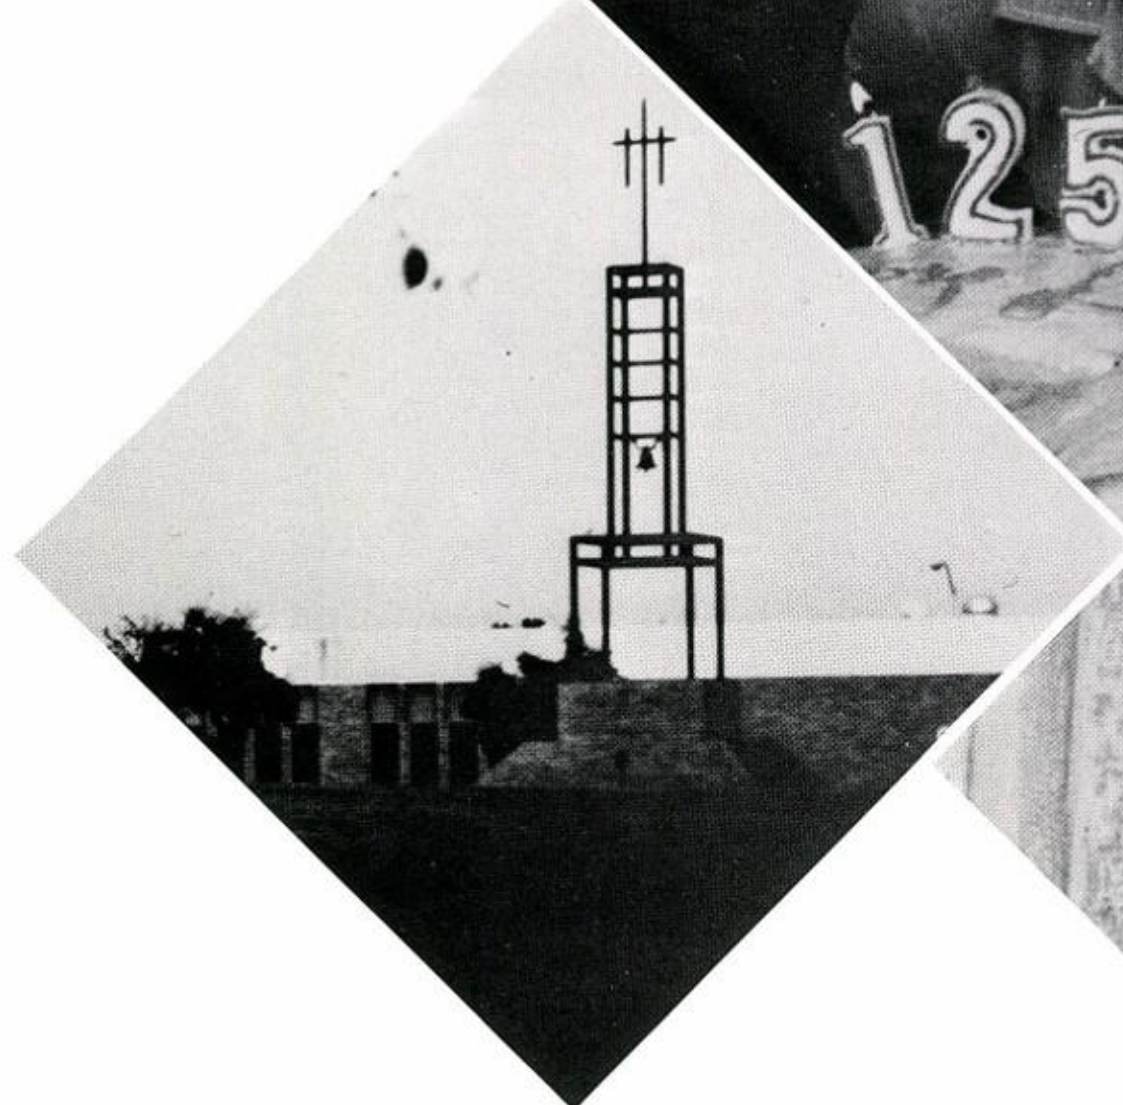

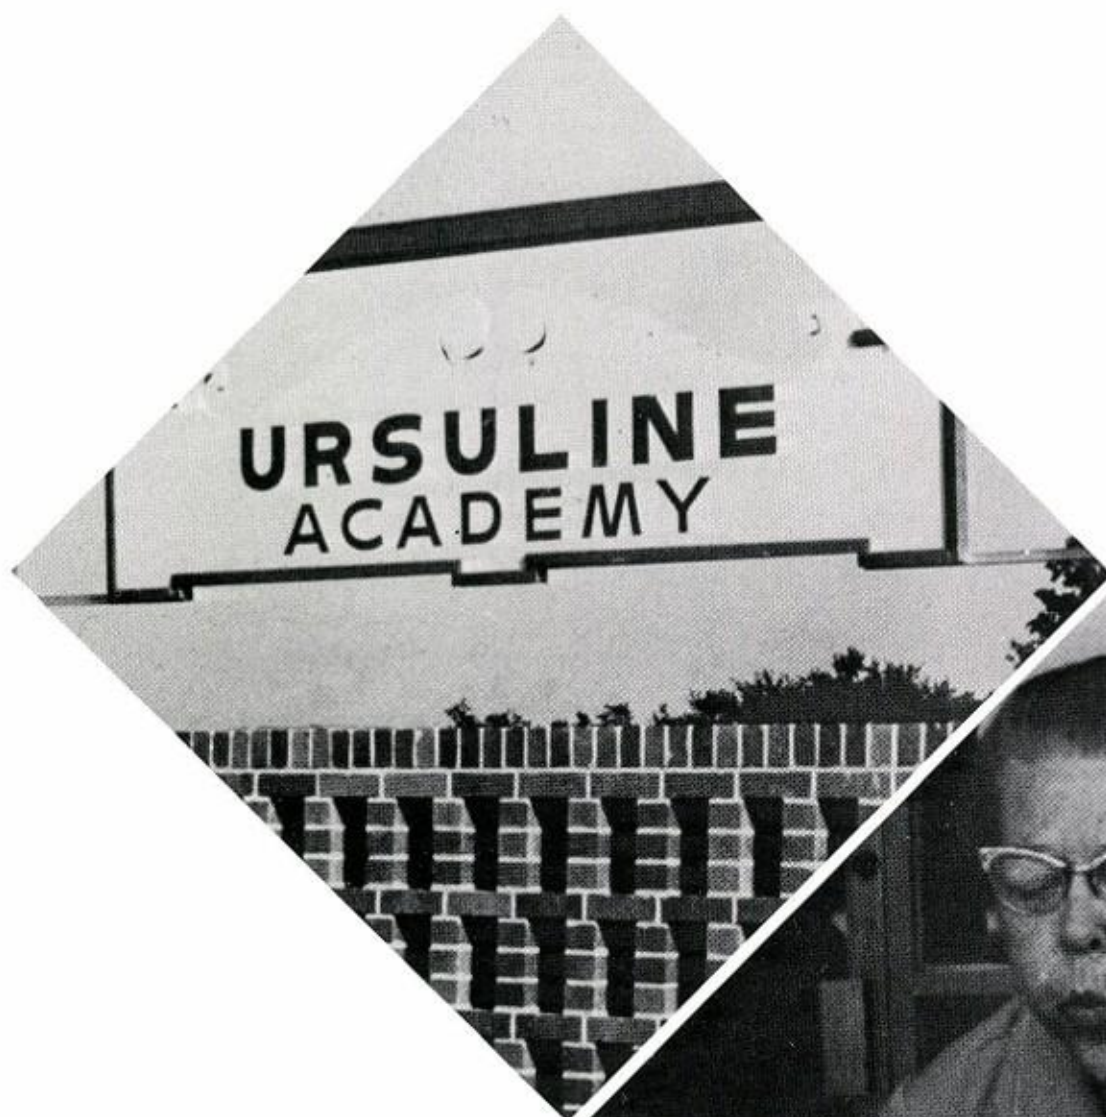

Eating cake, toasting with bubbling champagne, engaging in a student-faculty volleyball game, and planting trees, set the scene on September 14, 1976, for the celebration of Ursuline's 125th Anniversary in San Antonio, Texas.

The festivities, organized by Student Council, began with the blessing of the trees by Msgr. Murray. Each class, including the Class of 1976, donated their trees for the remembrance of the students attending Ursuline in the year of our 125th Anniversary.

Sister Elizabeth Carpentier proceeded with the dedication ceremonies by opening the (faculty-only) bottles of champagne, while Mrs. Callsen blew out the candles on the massive cake. Sister Genevieve Babin sliced the first piece.

For an added surprise, the faculty challenged the students to a volleyball game. Although the students were defeated, the game proved that student-faculty relationships have truly advanced over the past 125 years.

Look Forward to the Future.

Preserve the heritage, preserve what was good.
Reach back . . . find a way to keep the best
Too many days pass, and gradually the things that once stood as little pinnacles of glory above the flatlands crumble and are buried.
Before long we do not remember what was worthy of saving. This is the constant ache: A sense of responsibility for what was greater than you:
A feeling that although we do not know where we are going, we must know where we have been.

A quote from Elroy Bode's
Notebook found in the diary of an early Urouline student in San Antonio.

The pleasure of childhood should in the main be such as the child extracts himself from his environment by means of some effort and inventiveness.

Activities*

Juniors are kool.

Summer was fun.

Father Gus orientates the faculty.

76-77 ORIENTATION

Religion? Right.

An endless summer? This dream, of many returning Ursuline students, was shattered when the time arrived to report for orientation on August 18th and 19th.

On August 18th the new incoming Freshmen eagerly reported. Most of them were more than ready to begin their four years of high school. They quickly learned that this school was not all Ursuline sports and Antonian football, but a serious place to further an education. Registration, book buying, and getting to know fellow classmates filled the morning agenda. By twelve noon, the Freshmen prepared themselves for dances, parties, boys, and a little Algebra I on the side.

Orientation for the Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors differed. They, having been through this excruciating ritual previously, found little comfort in the hallowed halls. Yet, when reminiscing began of afternoons spent in the library, spirit week, retreats, and how this year's prom better be the best ever, the pain of nine months of school lessened somewhat.

Nobody said it's easy.

Tans are in.

Masses

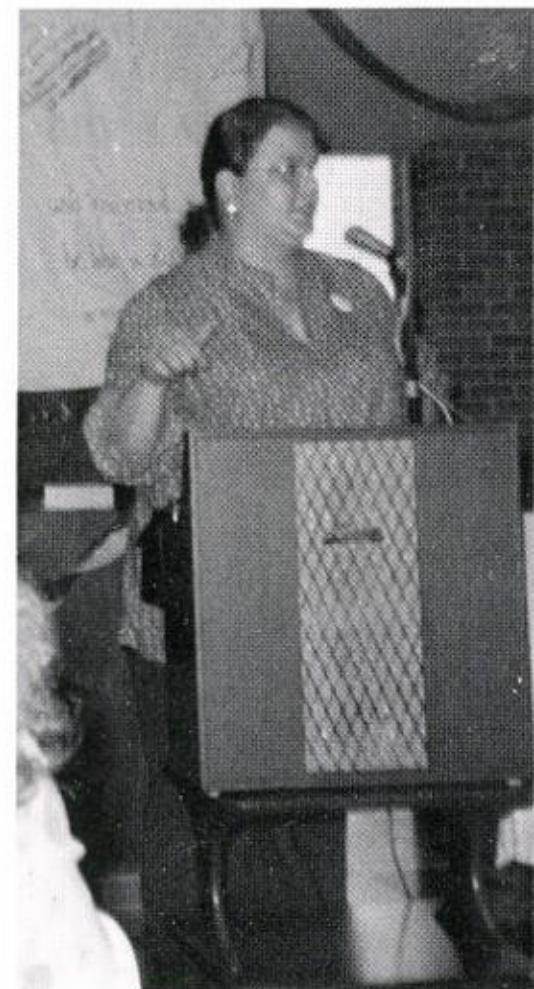

Holy Masses are a special part of the Ursuline community. They are a time when everyone is at peace with one another.

The cross is the instrument of man's liberation from slavery to this world and to sin and the means of His renewal.

Msgr. Murray celebrates mass on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception.

Alleluia, Alleluia. Alleluia!!!

Freshman Induction

The freshman induction ceremony is the formal introduction of the freshman class into Ursuline. After this celebration the girls are allowed the privilege of wearing the Ursuline uniform.

The juniors and seniors are the other participants in the ceremony. The juniors present the traditional blue sweater to their "little sisters." Seniors participate in the candlelight portion of the induction.

A reception, following the celebration, concludes the evening.

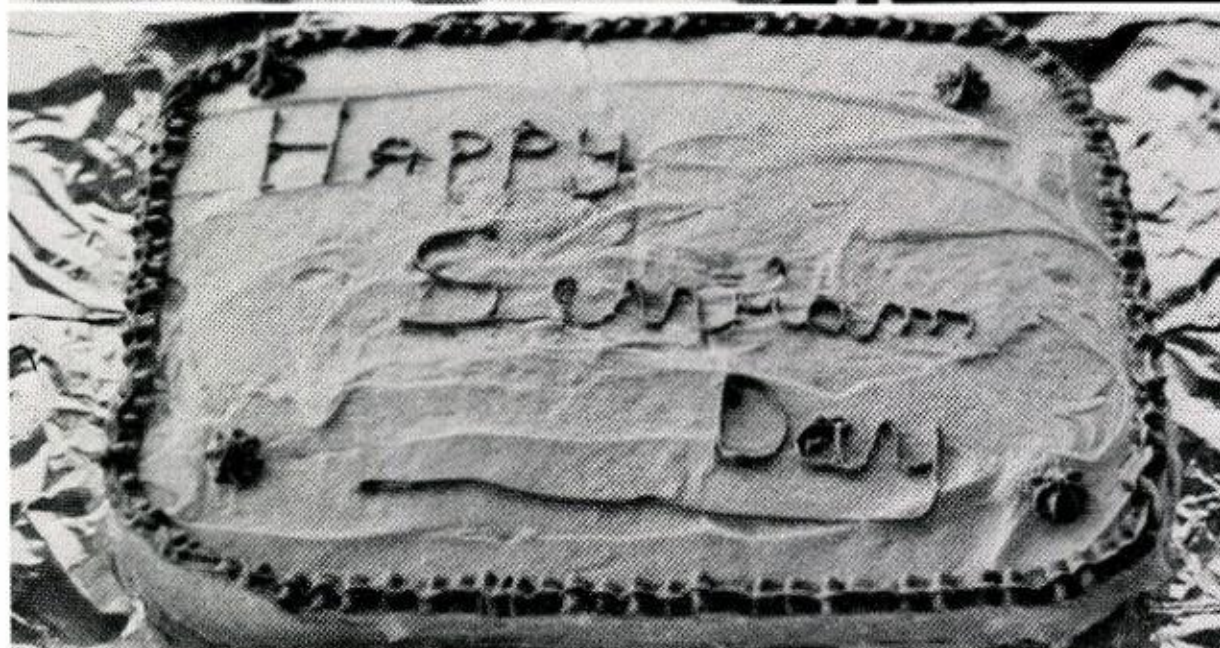

Come on baby, light my fire.

Patty Zamariippa congratulates little sister Patricia Camacho.

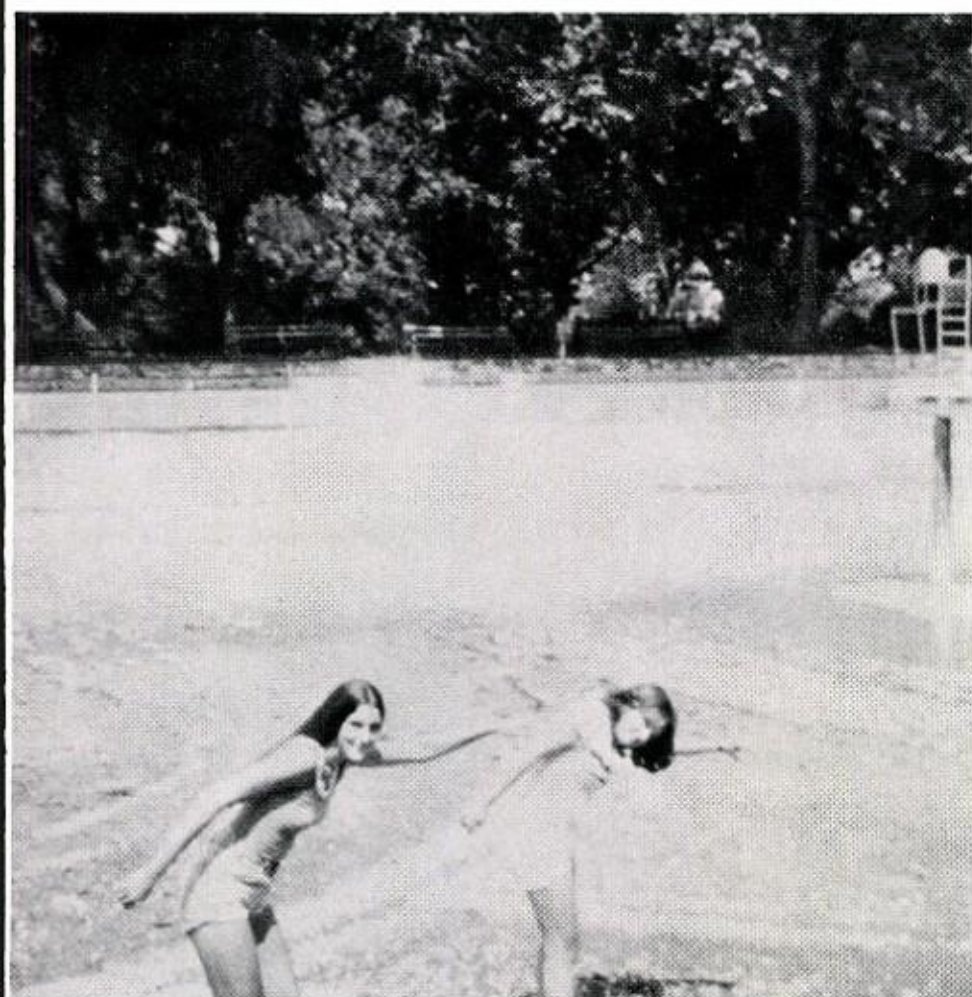

The Serviam ceremony is a tradition that has been carried out at Ursuline for many years. The sophomores dedicate themselves to their school as they receive their Serviam pins from their senior big sisters. After each sophomore has been pinned with the symbol of Ursuline, the whole class stands to recite the Serviam pledge. This ceremony makes every girl feel that she is a real member of the Ursuline family.

Of course after every ceremony there is a celebration and this one is no different. The Seniors have refreshments for their little sisters to help celebrate the spirit of happiness that belongs to the sophomore class.

Someone put my pin on upside down . . . and I think I know who it is!

SISTERS GET TOGETHER.

At the beginning of the school year each junior chooses a girl from the freshman class to be her little sister. The juniors act as "real" big sisters to the freshmen. If there are ever any questions the freshman's big sister will always try to help. Sometimes the only thing a freshman wants is a friend and a big sister is always the best kind of friend that a little sister can have.

To get acquainted at the beginning of every school year the freshmen and juniors go on the annual Big-Sister, Little-Sister picnic. This is usually a very enjoyable way to get to know the people whom you will be going to school with.

The juniors provide the food and refreshments for the freshmen and do everything possible to make the new members of the school feel that they are welcome.

Student-Faculty Breakfast

The Student Council breakfast was held in the school cafeteria on September 23, 1976. Members of the Student Council, Faculty, and Administration, discussed the role of the Student Council. Main topics discussed were the role of the Student Council, and roles it could pursue. Also discussed were problems at Ursuline and the good points about the school.

ASSEMBLIES ARE GETTING BETTER . . .

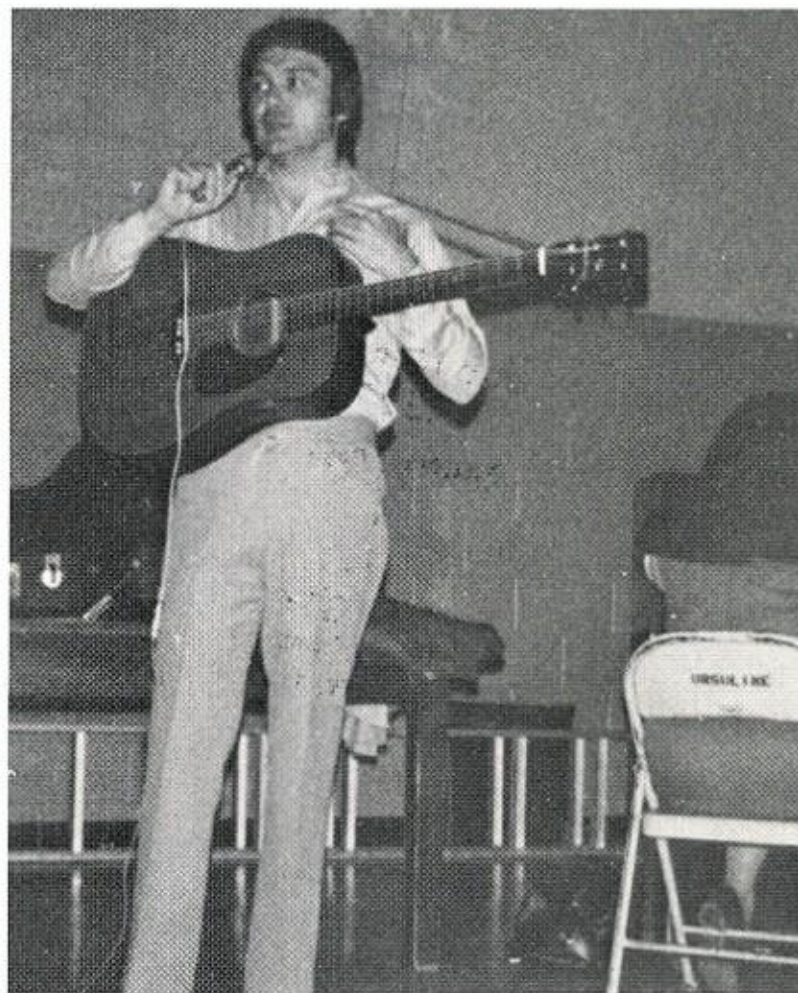

At the beginning of the school year, complaints were made about the "uninteresting" assemblies that were presented to the student body. The Ursuline journalism staff wrote an editorial in the Ursuline "Reveille" about this problem and it inspired the Student Council and other concerned Ursuline people to do something about it. A flood of new and different kinds of assemblies soon came to Ursuline.

The San Antonio Ballet Company was brought to the school and put on an outstanding performance. The A. F. S. Trio also visited Ursuline to perform songs from all over the world. Later on in the year, George Massey came to exhibit his talents and techniques in opera singing. He made opera a fun experience as well as a cultural one. The Coca Cola Company along with KTSA came to give a fun filled, multi-media presentation on advertising. Of course, the Media-Drama department had its annual assembly which was marvelous as usual, and the Student Council held a farewell assembly to say goodbye to five of our teachers. Hopefully next year they will continue to present new and exciting assemblies to the student body. It certainly put a little more sparkle into the school year.

Diane and Sister Elizabeth pose for a shot!

On May 17, 1977 the Juniors engaged in the traditional ring ceremony, marking their readiness to become Seniors. The ceremony which included receiving rings from Sister Elizabeth and white sweaters from their little sisters, was the beginning of the end of the Class of 1978 at Ursuline Academy.

The excitement of the Ring Ceremony: Some girls couldn't blink while others couldn't keep their eyes open.

Move over Antonian rings, here comes the Ursuline ring.

Ursuline dances attract all sorts.

DANCES

Every year, each class (except the Fish) holds a dance to raise money. The Senior Class of '77 held the annual Back to School dance on Friday, September 17th. The music was provided by Stonecreek who played in the gym decorated according to the theme with a red school house, ABC's, and a giant "Welcome Back!" poster. The usual goal in raising money for the underclassmen is to have enough money when Prom time comes around their Junior year so they can give the Seniors the best Prom they can. The Juniors held their dance on November 19, using the theme "Dance the Night Away." The Sophs held their first dance on March 19 with the theme "Nights are Forever." They rented a sound system from Hallelujah Hollywood which added a different concept to the usual dances. All dances were enjoyed by all. They proved to be both successful and profitable.

"Clean Cut" youths of the 50's enjoy an Ursuline dance. Things sure have changed (see picture above)!

Winter Frolic

Based on the theme "A Gift to Aphrodite", the Winter Frolic took place on Saturday, January 15. The cafeteria/Skyline Room decorated with uncandles and sea shell centerpieces provided a beautiful setting for the semi-formal. The band "Infinity" provided the music.

Helen Graviss was crowned as this year's Queen of the Winter Frolic. Her court consisted of: Senior princess Debbie Rabel, Junior princess Letty Flores, Sophomore princess Bettina Rodriguez, and Freshman princess Loretta Valdespino.

A special thanks to Master of Ceremonies, Mr. John O'Connell, and to the Student Council for the many hours of time and effort which were put into this year's Winter Frolic to make it a success.

The Queen—Pamela Mora

The Junior-Senior Prom was held April 2, 1977 in the Grand Ballroom of Oak Hills Country Club. Pam Mora was crowned queen of the Court. Crowned Princess was Beverly Lucas and Lori Hart was crowned Duchess of the Prom. It was a treasured finale for the class of '77'.

This year's 1976 PTC Festival held on October 17, successfully raised enough money to complete payments on the gym built three years ago. More than just a money raising project the Festival created fun and entertainment for all who attended. The day's festivities included games such as ring toss, basketball toss, cherry bells, and a new addition to the day was a dunking booth run by the cheerleaders.

Of course a festival isn't all fun and games, it involves much more. Such as: food and entertainment! Something which no Ursuline girl can do without.

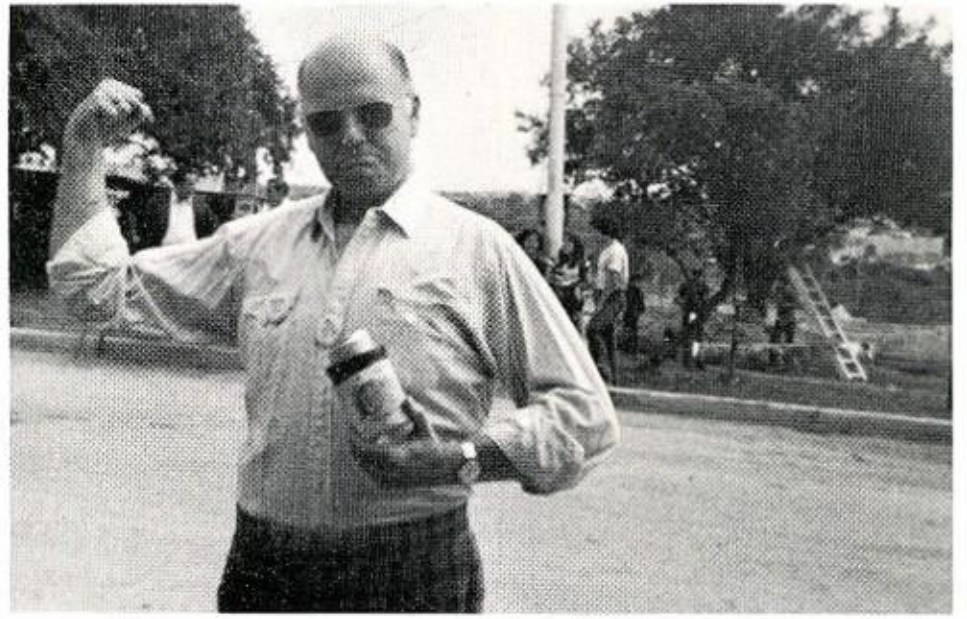

1. Lucille Masters gets a long awaited bath in the cheerleader's booth.
2. Where are the baby chickens?
3. Anne Jones invites Ingrid to 'crack' a smile.

2. Coors, breakfast of champions.

Mr. Wroten successfully motivated the girls to sell raffle tickets for the Pinto, in turn, raising money for the gym fund. Many other Ursuline families worked hard to make the festival a success also. The day ended in streams of confetti egg flowers and the aroma of good foods, and the night began with strains of music coming from the gym as young people began to dance to the music of "Straw Dogs". The Ursuline Festival provides the opportunity for Ursuliners old and new to get together and enjoy a good time. Festival '76 provided both and it seems everyone who took advantage of that opportunity enjoyed the day, (and night!)

MISSION DAY

The annual Mission Day held February 2, proved to be even more fun and profitable than last year's. All Mission Queen candidates and advisory projects brought in a total of over $836.00. The money earned will aid the poor people who the San Antonio missions provide for. The theme this year was "A World of" Freshman advisory 15 earned first place for their "discotheque". Senior advisory 19 rated second with their western saloon and advisory 3 and 10 tied for third place with their "Old McDonald Farm" and "World of Entertainment". The biggest money-maker was "The World of the Mafia", Mr. Wisinski's advisory. Lanell Mangold was named Mission Queen. Karen Laake was the second runner-up, followed by Donna Meyer as third runner-up. The three together made over $100.00.

Second runner-up for Mission Queen, Karen Laake holds 1st place trophy for advisory 15.

Slave Day

As in previous years, the Freshmen once again were slaves to the Seniors. The Seniors took advantage of this long-awaited privilege and had their chance to embarrass the Freshmen as they had been four years earlier.

REMEMBER THE DAY THE BANANAS DID THE SPLITS . . .!

CREATIVITY is the word when the Media class starts making those banana splits! Everyone will have to agree that for 75 cents you can't get a more deliciously fattening treat. But not only is it great for Ursuline tum-mies, it's great for C. U. E. (Creative Ursuline Enterprises) because the money earned goes toward film developing, putting on the school plays and many other creative activities. Since this is the second year of the banana split project, it has almost become a tradition. So, when they are back again next year eat up! Give your stomach a treat, and help C. U. E. too!

STUDENT-FACULTY VOLLEYBALL GAME

On the day of our 125th birthday celebration, the faculty challenged the students to a game of volleyball as an extra surprise for the day. Out of the three games that were played the faculty won two. They claim it was pure skill and organization, but the students know that it was pure luck! However, the game added an extra touch to the gaiety of the day.

SPANISH DINNER

Where did it all go?

On October 13 the annual Mexican Dinner was held in our cafeteria. Each of the students who attended the dinner contributed her own specialty in Mexican food. In addition to the dinner, entertainment was provided by the students. Teresa Fonsaca and Anna Mejia each performed a dance while Kathy Romero recited a Spanish poem. The evening turned out to be "muy bueno"!

SANTA VISITS URSULINE

On Wednesday, November 24th the Journalism Department sponsored Picture Day With Santa Claus. Pictures were taken all day in Room 15 for a fee of $1.50. Santa was played by a member of our faculty, Mr. Bill Leitch. The Department profited in the amount of 205.00 dollars. Thanks is extended to Mr. Leitch and Mrs. Mary Jayne Staudt for providing film and for her time and energy in taking the pictures.

Break Away

... on a retreat.

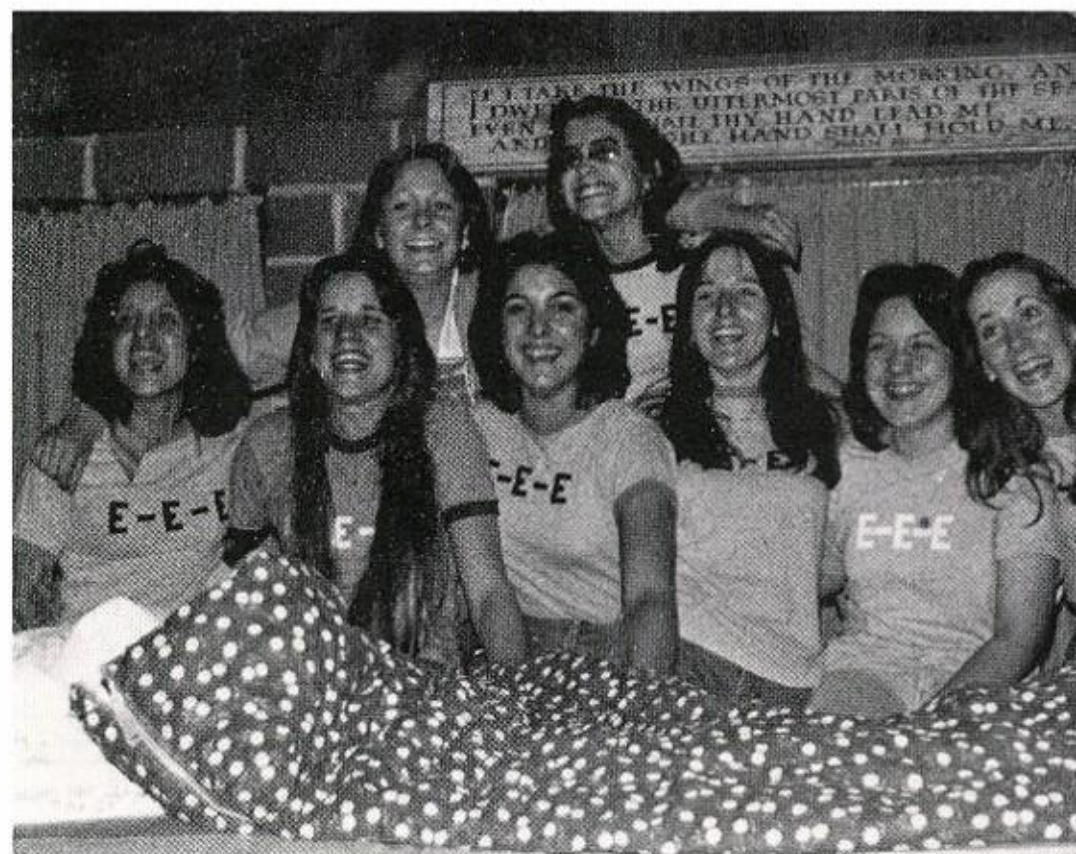

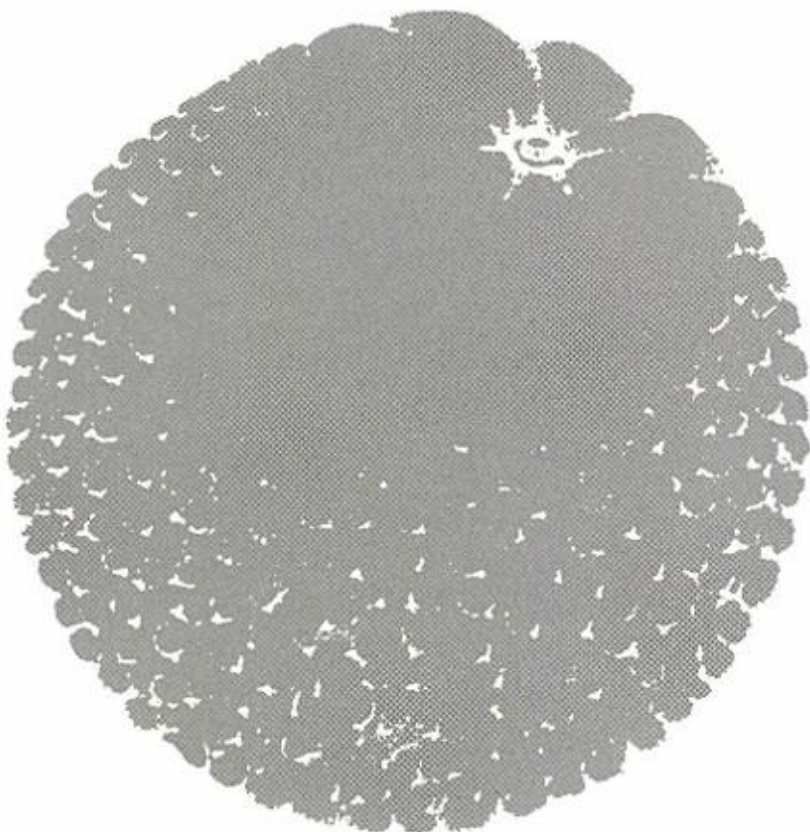

Retreats this year were as meaningful and fun! as ever. Seniors, juniors, and sophomores all had the opportunity to attend their class retreats. Retreats allow students to get together for a weekend and be their natural selves. Something about being out in the wilderness brings out a glow in everybody. It clears the head and brings out a freshness in thoughts. Thanks goes to who else but Susan Klein for all those wonderful experiences. Oh yes, and E-E-E to all the juniors!

College Day

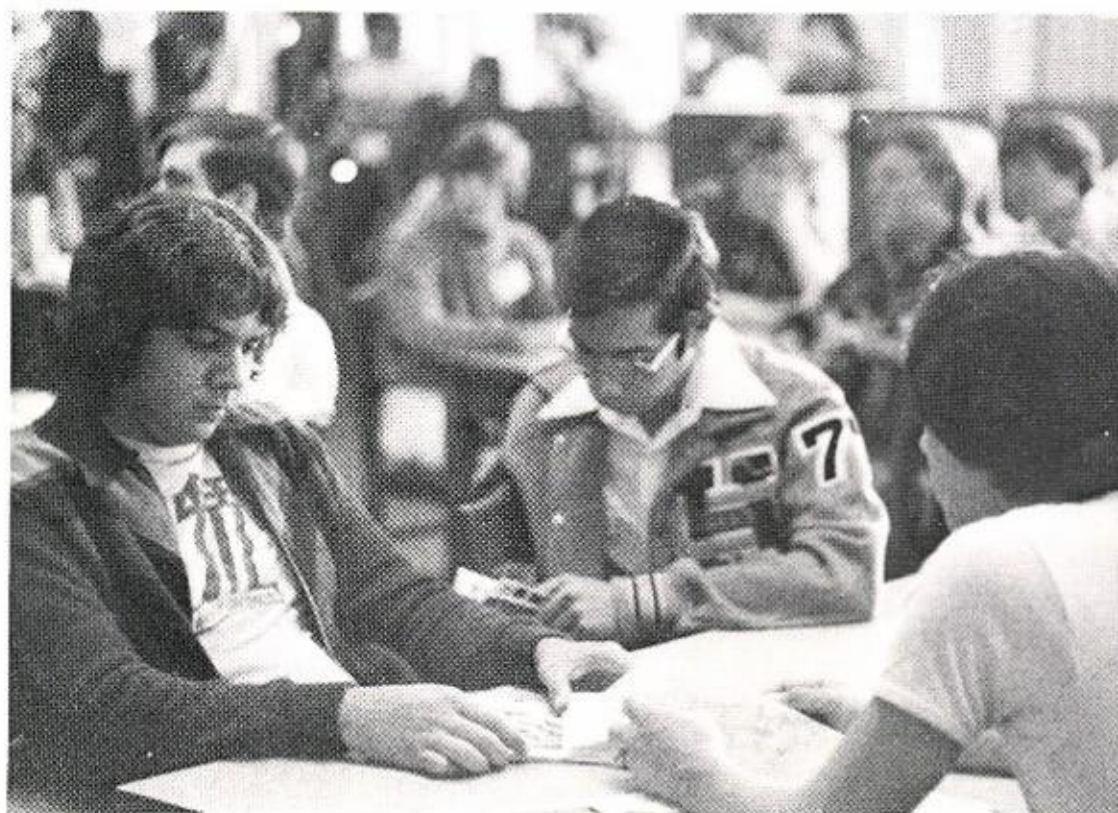

This year's college day was a new experience for Ursuline students. This year Ursuline was the host to neighboring schools throughout San Antonio. Juniors and Seniors were given the opportunity to visit and talk to representatives from Texas colleges and a few from out of the State.

Ursuline students, young and old, were given their chance to voice their opinion of Presidential candidates during the Mock Election Week held.

Program Manager Nanette Freyre and other student council members organized the week which consisted of listening to local candidates and local representatives for Pres. Ford and Gov. Carter. Students then voted on Election Day and the result was a Ford Victory. Who said America's youths don't know how to pick a good President when they see one! (As you can tell a Republican wrote this!)

Father-Daughter Banquet

The annual Father-Daughter Banquet held on March 16 at Canyon Creek Country Club seemed to be a joyous occasion once again. Guest speaker Mary Denman opened the floor to questions, which was different from the way previous speakers addressed the girls and their fathers.

This dinner is truly a memorable one. It gives the girls a chance to spend an evening with their fathers, which unfortunately can be quite a feat with such conflicting schedules in families.

"Can you guess what I'm eating?"

Proud Mary and her father enjoy the evening together.

"It beats the convent dinners any day."

CELEBRATION OF THE FEAST OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

The Feast of the Immaculate Conception on December 8 turned out to be quite a different sort of day for everyone in the Ursuline community.

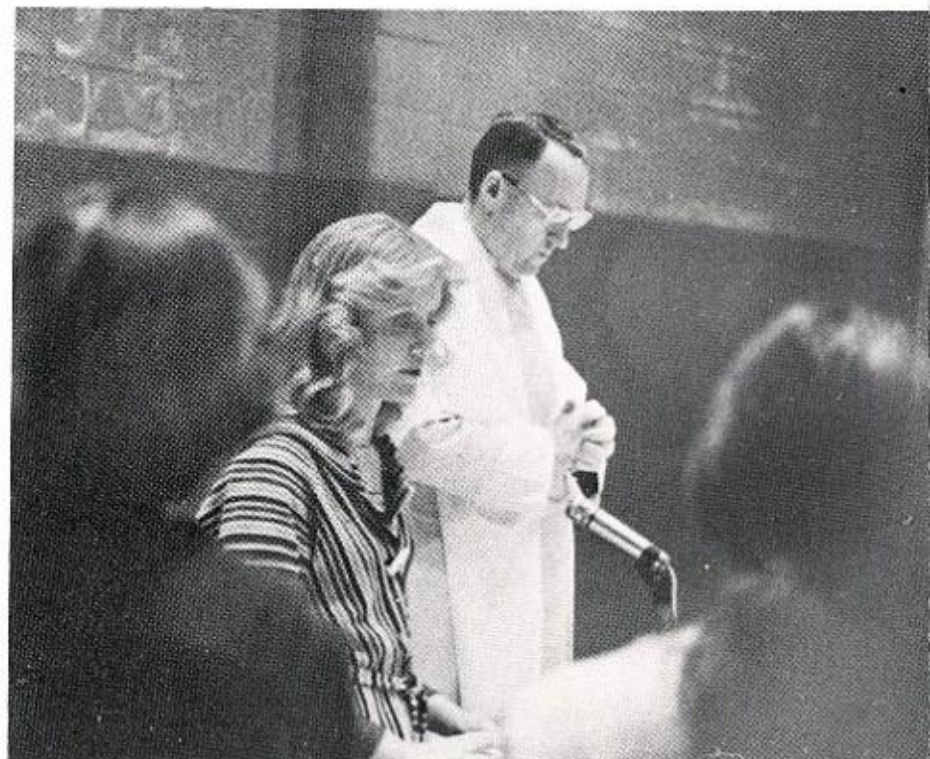

The day began with a not-so-typical assembly. It was a presentation by the San Antonio Ballet Company, in which some of the members of the company demonstrated their many talents. The "ooh's" and "ah's" from the students showed their delight in the graceful movements of the performers.

Then as usual, everyone went to her first class. But, to everyone's surprise, the classes were just a little different that day. Instead of religion with Susan Klein, students learned about her famous camera; instead of English with Mr. Wisinski, classes experienced his drumming along with a guitar playing friend; and instead of teaching Math, Mrs. Cutaia performed mysterious magic tricks! Students soon learned that NO!, their teachers were not going crazy, but that the National Honor Society had asked each of the teachers to show students things they were interested in, or the things they did when they weren't teaching. Other interesting things exhibited by teachers were Mr. Leitch's fishing gear, Mrs. Pfeil's beautiful doll collection, and Mrs. Casper's talk on Europe and Christmas decorating.

But that wasn't all. That night Monsignor Murray said a mass in the gym open to everyone in the Ursuline family. Afterwards, parents, family, and friends were treated to a free, delicious Mexican supper in the cafeteria. All of this made the Feast of the Immaculate Conception a very special and memorable day. Where else but Ursuline could something so unique happen?

Mother-Daughter Luncheon

The Mother-Daughter Luncheon held at Canyon Creek Country Club had a different twist to it this year. Not only did the Seniors and their mothers enjoy the good food, they got to enjoy a Spring fashion show. Various stores around town lent clothes for the occasion which were modeled by the Seniors themselves. Everyone agreed that the Seniors did a beautiful job of modeling and that the entire affair was very enjoyable.

SPIRIT WEEK

Spirit Week came once again to Ursuline students during the week of March 21 to 25. As in the previous years, Student Council planned and organized a different event for each day during the week. It was then up to the class officers to decide who would represent them in the various events. Students participated enthusiastically in the daily contests such as tricycle riding, Volkswagen stuffing, pogo stick riding, and balloon busting! And of course the tug-of-war was nice and messy.

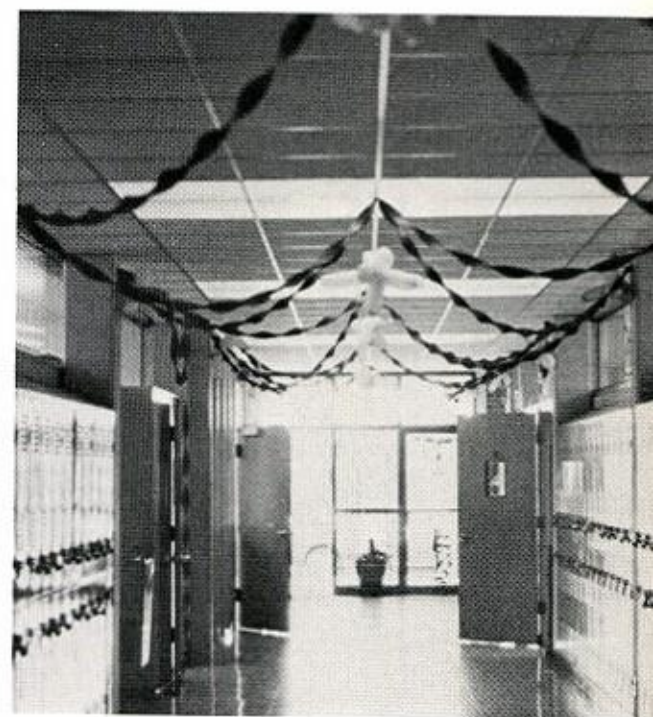

A new contest introduced this year was 50's day. Pony tails, bobby socks, and saddle shoes were seen everywhere. Leather jackets and slicked hair made some Ursuline girls look MEAN! Of course along with all the "boss" clothes came a 50's dance contest. We had some wild ones out there!

Spirit Week was all great except for the fact that the Sophs won in spirit points with 52. Juniors had 51, Seniors 41, and Fish 33.

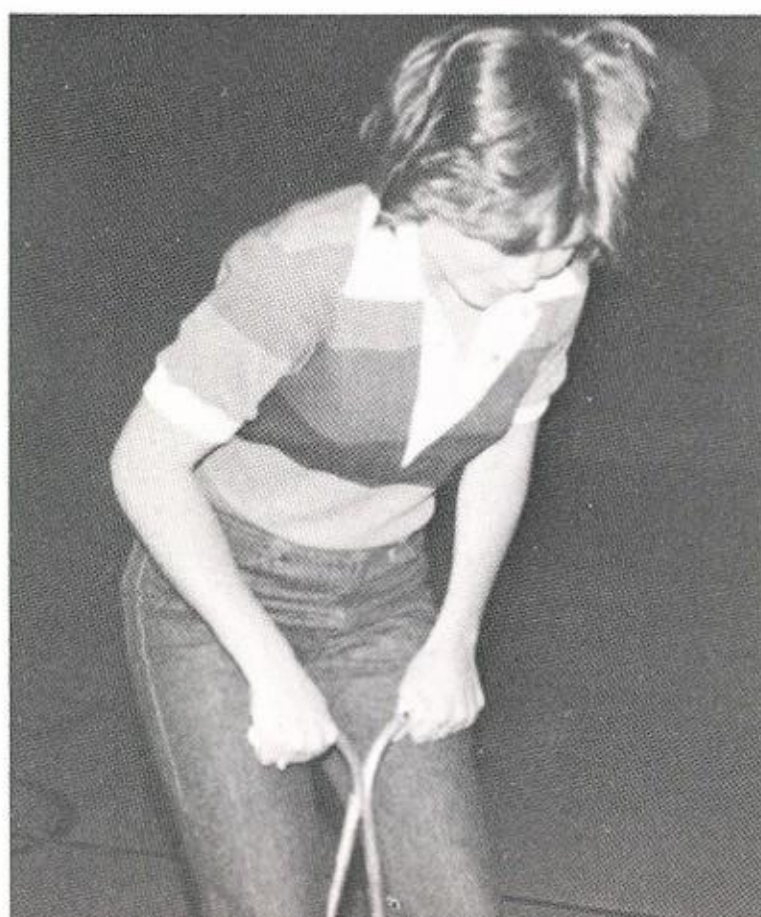

The best 50's dressers from each class: Lisa Armstrong, Patricia Comacho, Susan Rivera, and Sharon Rivera. Sharon was named best over all.

URSULINITES AT SUMMERTIME FOLK LIFE FESTIVAL

Through the week of August 4-9 the Institute of Texas Cultures held its annual Texas Folk life Festival. A visitor to the Festival will discover that Texas' background is a colorful patchwork of many different cultures, bordered with a swatch of the old American Frontier West. Each one of these cultures is part of the affair, selling the specialty food of the culture or some famous product. The Lebanese members of the community put on a fabulous show which includes some Ursuline Lebanese dancers!

RODEO COMES TO SAN ANTONIO

Rodeo time in February gives everyone a chance to don his boots and cowboy hat, and turn that radio to KBUC all week. Well, even if some don't go that far, the Stock Show and Rodeo is great fun for everyone. Joe Freeman Coliseum sets the stage for contests in bull riding, cow roping barrel jumping, and wild horse riding. Outside of the Coliseum a huge carnival with exciting rides, food and drink booths, game booths, and a variety of sideshows kept San Antonians and visitors busy and DIZZY! The Stock Show and Rodeo is considered one of the biggest and exciting events in San Antonio. Sure enough, Kicker or not, it's fun!

A Night In Old San Antonio

The first "Night in Old San Antonio" was staged by the S. A. Conservation Society shortly after World War II. It grew from this small bazaar-type, ladies club affair to one of the most popular Fiesta Week happenings that had to be spread over the entire week. At NIOSA people experience what holiday street life was like between 70 and 170 years ago. La Villita's walks are lined with booths decorated with colored lights, paper roses and costumed people. Everywhere is music: Spanish songs by serenaders in big sombreros, waltzes and polkas by German bands, and of course, country & western for all those Ursuline hillbillies. It's quite crowded at NIOSA alright, but always the crowd grins. Who can help it with all those aromas in the air, the good food, the good music, and the good company? NIOSA has it all. No one can resist having a good time!!

Remember . . .

Lisa, Cindy, and Nanette display their "carpenter" pants (below).

Big purses made of natural material were very popular in 1977.

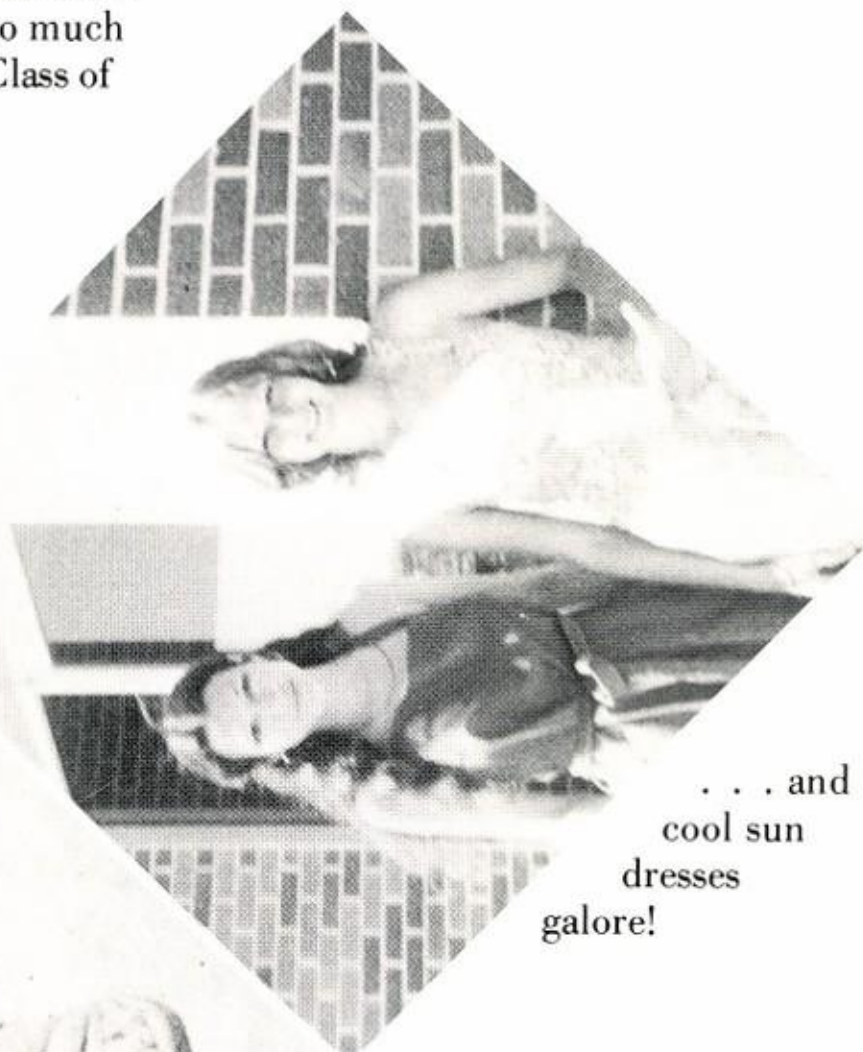

Fashions and fads in 1977 were dictated by what was comfortable and chic at the same time, but also by personal preference. Jeans or skirts, long hair or short hair, curly or straight, was all in style just as long as it fit the person. Feathered heads of hair were found on members of both sexes this year. Casual was the key word for everyone—even at formal occasions. The natural look was definitely in.

But let's not forget about the things we DID in our fashions. How about talking on CB's and going through the traumatic experience of KEXL going off the air? Rocky, Silver Streak, and A Star Is Born were the big hit movies that took up some of our weekends. When we weren't movie going we attended dances, parties, football games, concerts (let's hear it for Gino), parties, Wurstfest, bonfires, parties, get togethers at Cooter's formals, and graduation parties.

Ursuline has so much more to offer than a good education, and so does San Antonio. In 1977 there was so much to do, so much going on. All we had to do was reach out for it, and the Class of '77 DID!

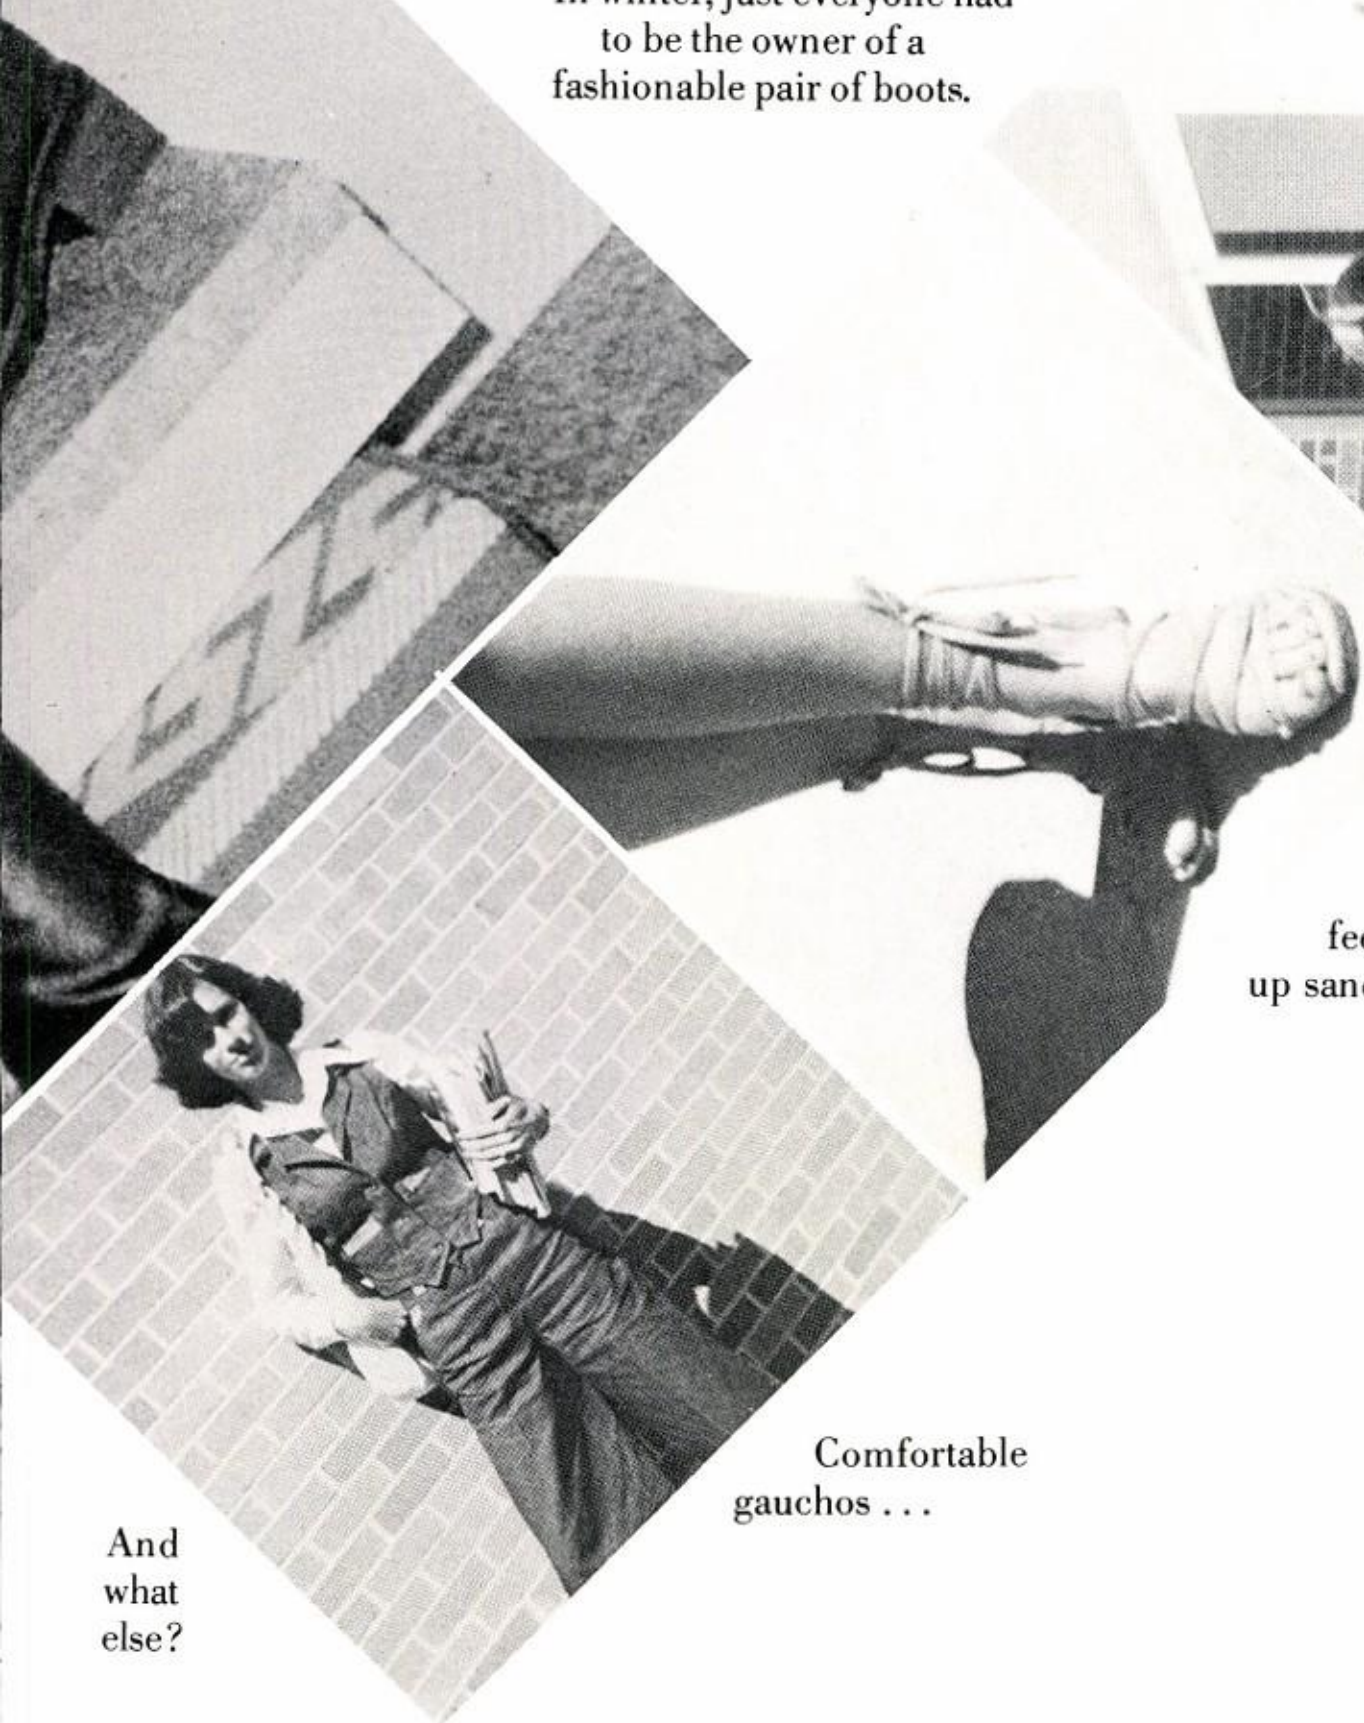

Sure Hits of '77

In winter, just everyone had to be the owner of a fashionable pair of boots.

Ursuline Alumnae Host Mother- Daughter Tea

May 1st marked the date of the Mother-Daughter Tea sponsored by the Ursuline Alumnae Association. Seniors realized for the first time that their four years at Ursuline were soon to come to an end. The Seniors were reminded that Ursuline and all its traditions were a part of their life forever. "Never forget Ursuline and keep in touch with each other. If you move, get married, or even have a baby, we want to know how you're doing. We also want to be able to locate you for class reunions and such things."

Ursuline has grown up with San Antonio just as the Seniors have grown up with Ursuline. No matter where any Ursuline girl may go may she always have those good ol' Ursuline memories, and memories of her beautiful and unique city—San Antonio.

I salute you, holy sisters, with friendship & respect.

Th. Jefferson

Letter from President Thomas Jefferson to the Ursuline Sisters, 1804, commending the sisters on their work. We commend the 1977 faculty on their work and thank them for their untiring enthusiasm which makes Ursuline the best!

As another year has come and gone, we bid farewell to five faculty members who were not only teachers but good friends. To show our gratitude, a surprise party was given to honor Mr. Leitch, Mrs. Lewis, Miss Klein, Miss Bazan and Sister Tonia. Each received to gifts, one humorous and the other a more serious symbol of our appreciation for their efforts and services at Ursuline. Also Father Gus said one last mass at Ursuline, we wish him the best in all he does and in all the future may bring him.

CLASS NIGHT 1977

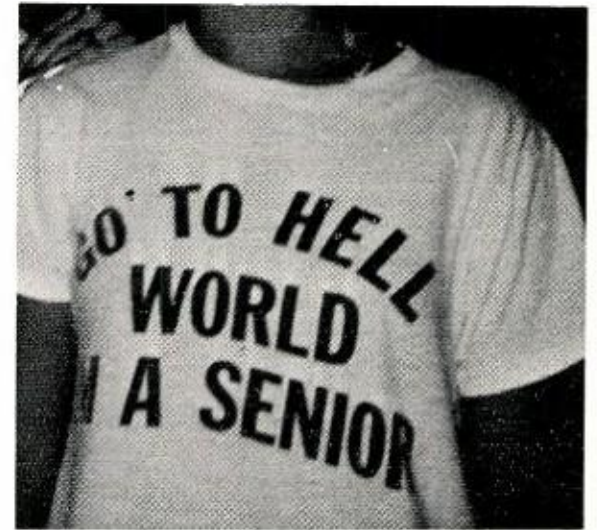

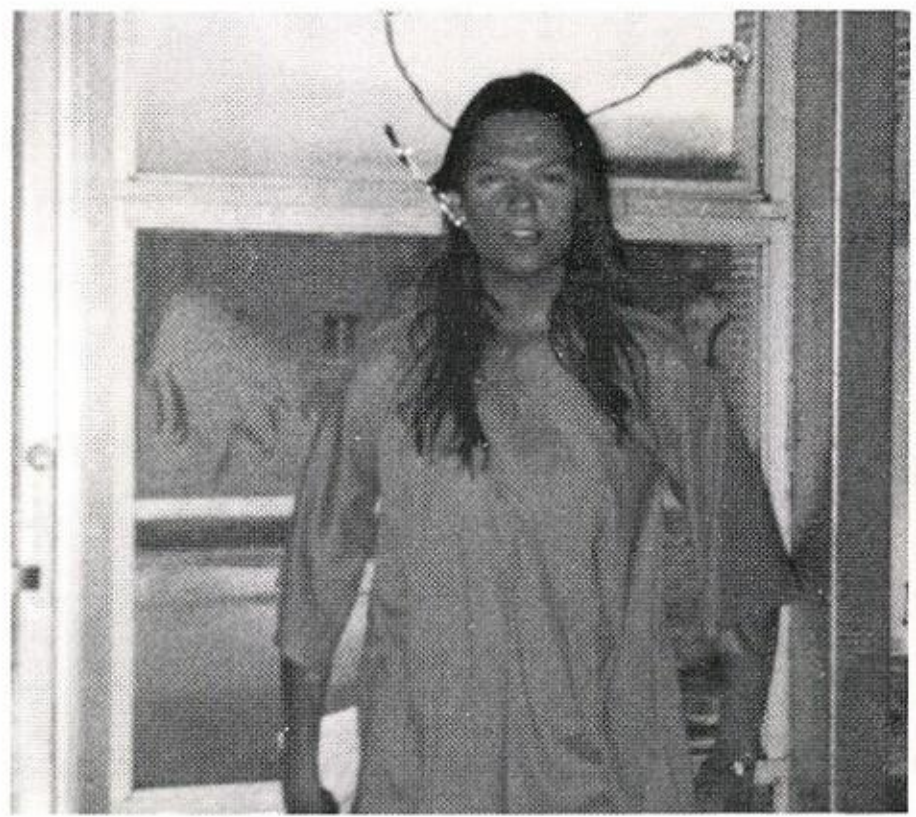

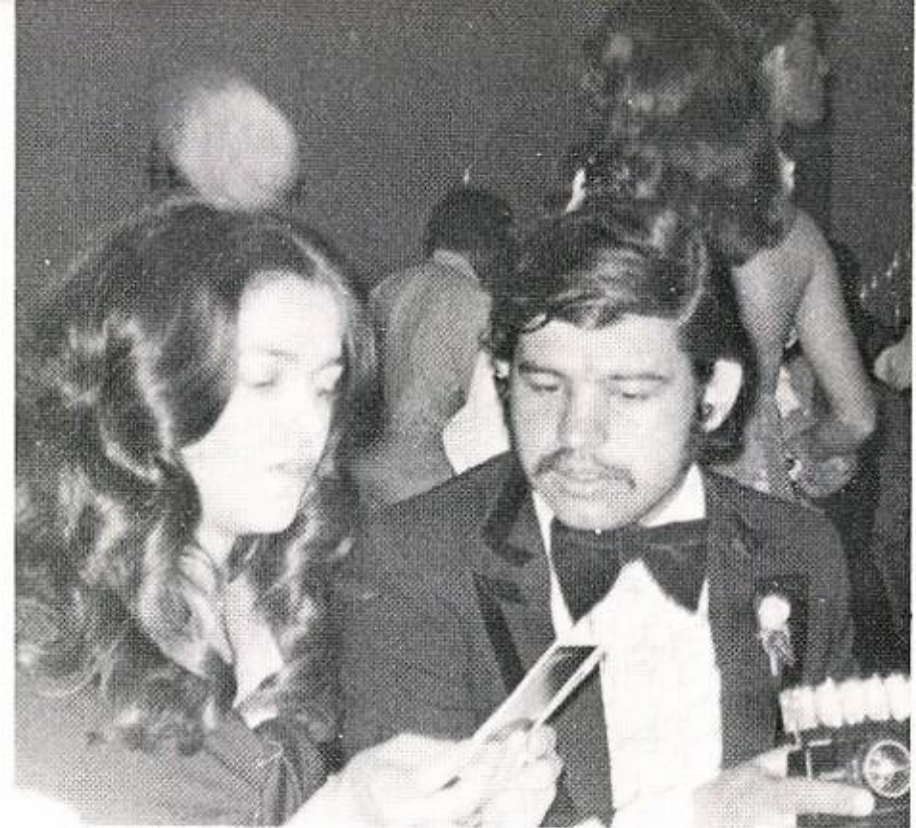

Remember When . . . ?

Another year has gone by, and yet another class has had their minds filled with long lasting memories. To others, these memories may seem blase, but to the Class of 1977, these memories are quite special. For that reason, we would like to fill this page with a few of the "remember whens" shared by the Class of 1977.

Remember when . . .

- . . . Joan Zatopek and Karen Cotton were just two of the great members of the Antonian Pep Squad
- . . . we spent half our Freshman year with a man called Mr. Franz, who never quite answered what inquiry was all about?
- . . . we had to change into our P. E. suits in the garage?
- . . . we went to the first Sleep-In and were wiped out the next morning?
- . . . we learned how to bowl on gravel and grass?
- . . . we met our big sisters and went to Landa Park?
- . . . Marisa Guido ate more baby food on Slave Day than she had in her entire infancy?
- . . . we engaged in Free Form sponsored by the NHS?
- . . . we couldn't decide on class colors, mottos, name, and the like?
- . . . we went with the entire student body to Corpus Christi?
- . . . the Drama Department performed "Window" starring Gumby?
- . . . we put on a truly successful Sophomore dance?
- . . . we had an All Saint's Day celebration with "Godspell" as the main attraction?
- . . . we listened to the relationship between Mr. Ezba and Miss Staples and read the rumors about Mr. Franz and Miss Staples?
- . . . we went on our first retreat and Denise Pizzini fell in love with javalines and Kathy O'Connell fell in hot water with Susan Klein for climbing on the cliffs?
- . . . we received our Serviam pins thus becoming part of Ursuline's family?
- . . . we witnessed our gym blessing and later watched "Thoroughly Modern Millie" from within the walls?
- . . . tuition was raised to $63.00 per month?
- . . . Mrs. Leitch cut her hair and Mr. Leitch went from bald to beard?
- . . . we finally shared classes with Antonian lads?
- . . . we experienced America's 200th birthday as Juniors?
- . . . we were faced with putting on a prom and ended up with the Hilton?
- . . . we finally were upper classmen and big sisters?
- . . . we received our rings and celebrated at Canyon Lake?
- . . . Bob Krueger gave Ursuline a flag that had been flown over the Capital?
- . . . SAT and ACT tests plagued us?
- . . . Esther Fortes became Ursuline's first foreign exchange student?
- . . . Ursuline held its very own College Day?
- . . . the yearbook was delayed and delayed and delayed and . . . ?
- . . . Civics Day came into being?
- . . . Awareness Days caused major chaos between the students and the Student Council?
- . . . we finally paid off the gym?
- . . . Leslie Luttrell was late for our Graduation picture and Julie Tarrillion never even knew about it?
- . . . the Blood Drive was less than successful?
- . . . college choices had to be made?
- . . . we finally had open campus?
- . . . we voted in a mock election and President Ford won?
- . . . Mrs. Root tried to help us sing our class song—"We May Never Pass This Way Again?"
- . . . the garage downstairs had a flameless fire?
- . . . Graduation caps and gowns arrived?
- . . . Graduation at Laurie Auditorium on May 15, 1977 passed, and we were no longer students at Ursuline Academy?

SECOND ANNUAL BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

The Athletic Department of Ursuline held their second annual basketball tournament on Dec. 3-4. Teams from the surrounding high schools were invited to attend.

Playing time began at 2:00 on Friday with Ursuline challenging Healy Murphy. Competition continued through Friday and ended Saturday night with the championship given to Edgewood High School. Randolph High School placed second and our Rebels came in a well-deserved third.

Being a cheerleader is more than jumping around and yelling for the school. Many hours are spent practicing, making all the signs and preparing pep rallies. Our cheerleaders attended a workshop sponsored by the National Cheerleader Association, and was given three superior ratings, a spirit stick, and a superstar ribbon. With this kind of "professionalism" we will always remember and be proud of the cheerleaders of 1976-1977.

Organizations

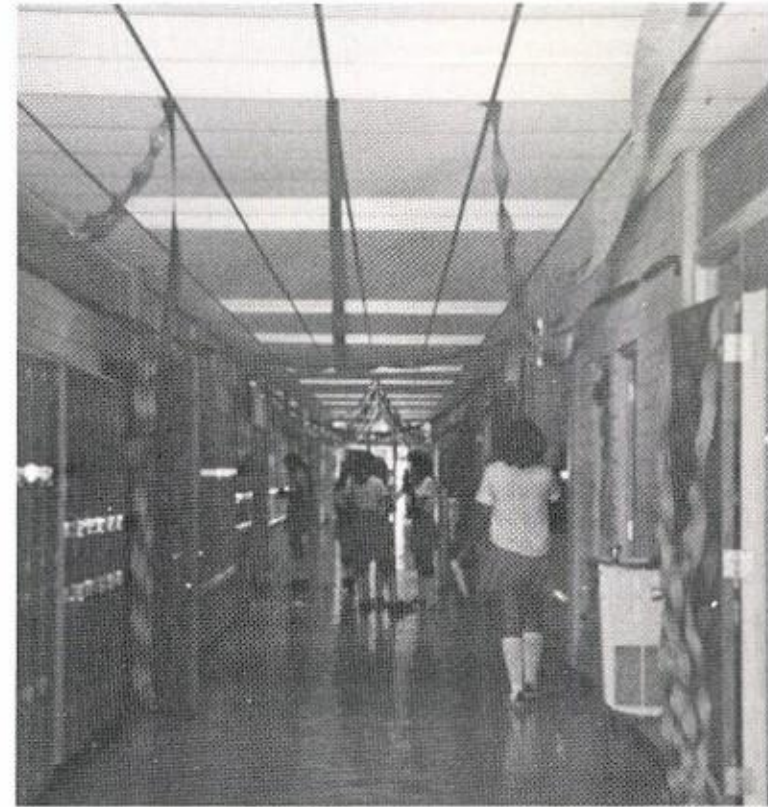

Student Council

The 1976-1977 Student Council had an interesting year. Since the Constitution was completed, the group could finally move on to different matters concerning the student body.

Their workshop, held in Castroville, was devoted to solving school problems and promoting school spirit. It was this weekend that the Awareness Days idea was born. Among other ideas were the Mock election, Spirit Week, promoting school spirit and ways to clean the cafeteria.

The group was successful on many of their ideas and the year seemed to be a profitable one.

Experience, however, was the group's greatest teacher, and the more we experience, the more we can correct our mistakes.

We had spirit, yes we did.

National Honor Society

The Ursuline Chapter of the National Honor Society, has taken on new dimensions to their usual activities. This year, the NHS had added a special tutoring program for students seeking help and had also started attaining college material for all students.

The Chapter also held its first workshop, where these ideas were developed and talked about.

This year's chapter was headed by:

Petie Neumann—President

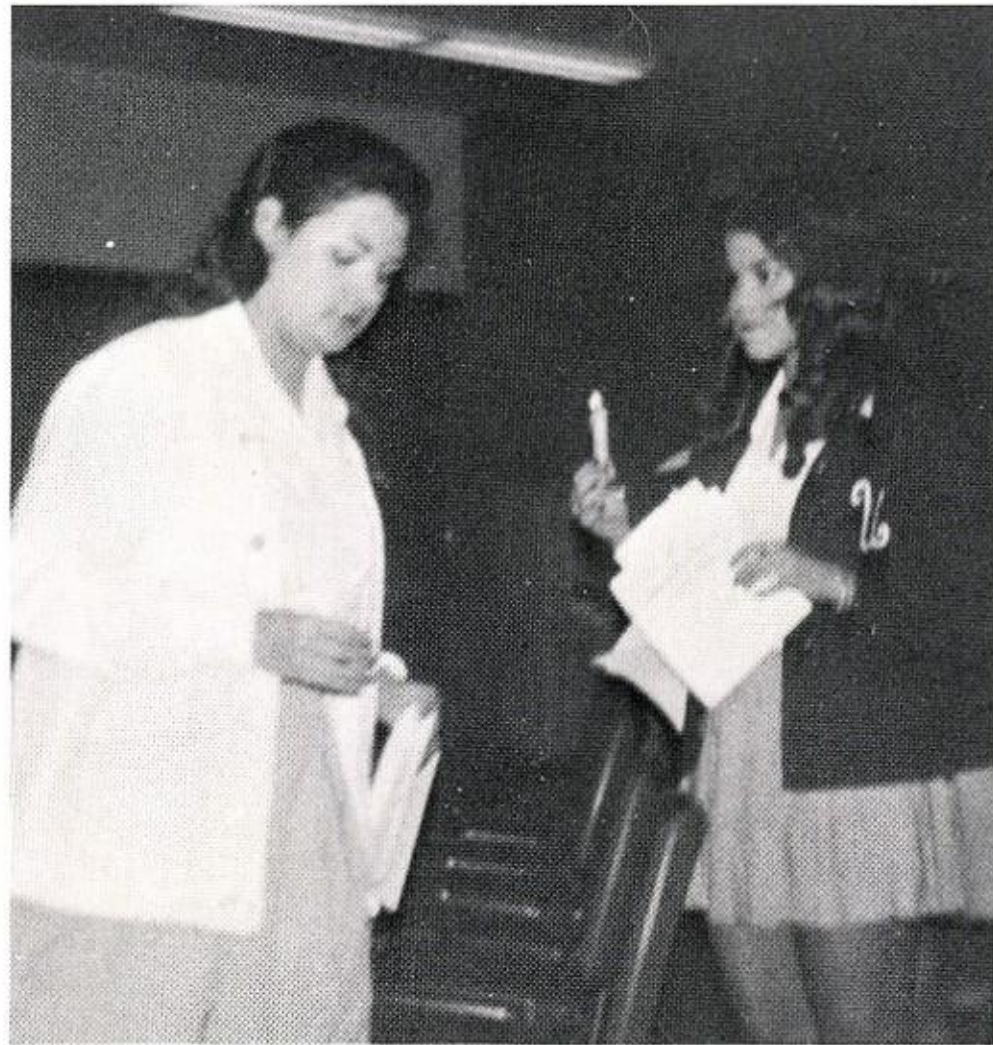

Nancy Runzler—Vice President

Carol Neumann—Treasurer

Bridget Lowry—Secretary

Sister Elizabeth served as the moderator while Mrs. Cutaia aided with the tutoring program.

Students are admitted to the chapter depending on their grades and recommendation of various faculty members.

Speech And Drama

This year's staging of plays and speech activities kept the Speech and Drama department busy with work. To kick off the season, "Dracula" was presented Nov. 20-21 in cooperation with Antonian High School. The play mystified the audience with illusions, tricks, and mysterious disappearances by Dracula. Around Christmas time an unique play with gypsies recreating the Christmas story was performed on Dec. 16 with "Christmas in the Village Square." It was an added attraction to the evening commemorating the Yuletide season along with the Choral and Art departments. The third production was entirely a new experiment. It was a Renaissance Evening on March 26 featuring scenes from Shakespearean plays, dancing and food from the era. Finally, the year was wrapped up with the Second Annual Speech tournament on May 6-7. It provided an opportunity for 7th and 8th graders to gain experience from speech competition. Speech competition also took the time of the Speech Team with Joan DeLatte winning numerous awards. Ingrid Christiansen was the club president.

Service

This year Ursuline had the experience of having, for the first time ever, an exchange student. Maria Esther Fortes came to Ursuline from Brazil and stayed with the Kanning family. By the end of the year, Esther was speaking fluent English and graduated with the class of 1977 with higher than average grades. At Class Night she addressed the Ursuline community saying that she loved Ursuline and would never forget her year here.

As you see, journalism people know how to take "candid" shots.

Newspaper Editor—
Nancy Runzler

Yearbook Editor—
Patricia Hardy

Lit. Mag. Editor—
Bernadette Hamilton

Publication of the Ursuline REVEILLE was placed in the hands of the newly-formed Journalism class, along with the yearbook and the literary magazine. This was a much needed arrangement in order to insure organization and division of responsibility. Three people were chosen to carry on the duties of issuing the three publications. Nancy Runzler was editor of the newspaper, Bernadette Hamilton took charge of the literary magazine, and Patricia Hardy headed the yearbook division.

Throughout the year, the journalism students, under the supervision of Mrs. Margery Hardy, gathered material from various events that happened around school. In March, through the presence of SUSAN BRIGHT, poet-in-residence, students created poems that were eventually published in the literary magazine. Susan came through a grant from the Texas Fine Arts Commission.

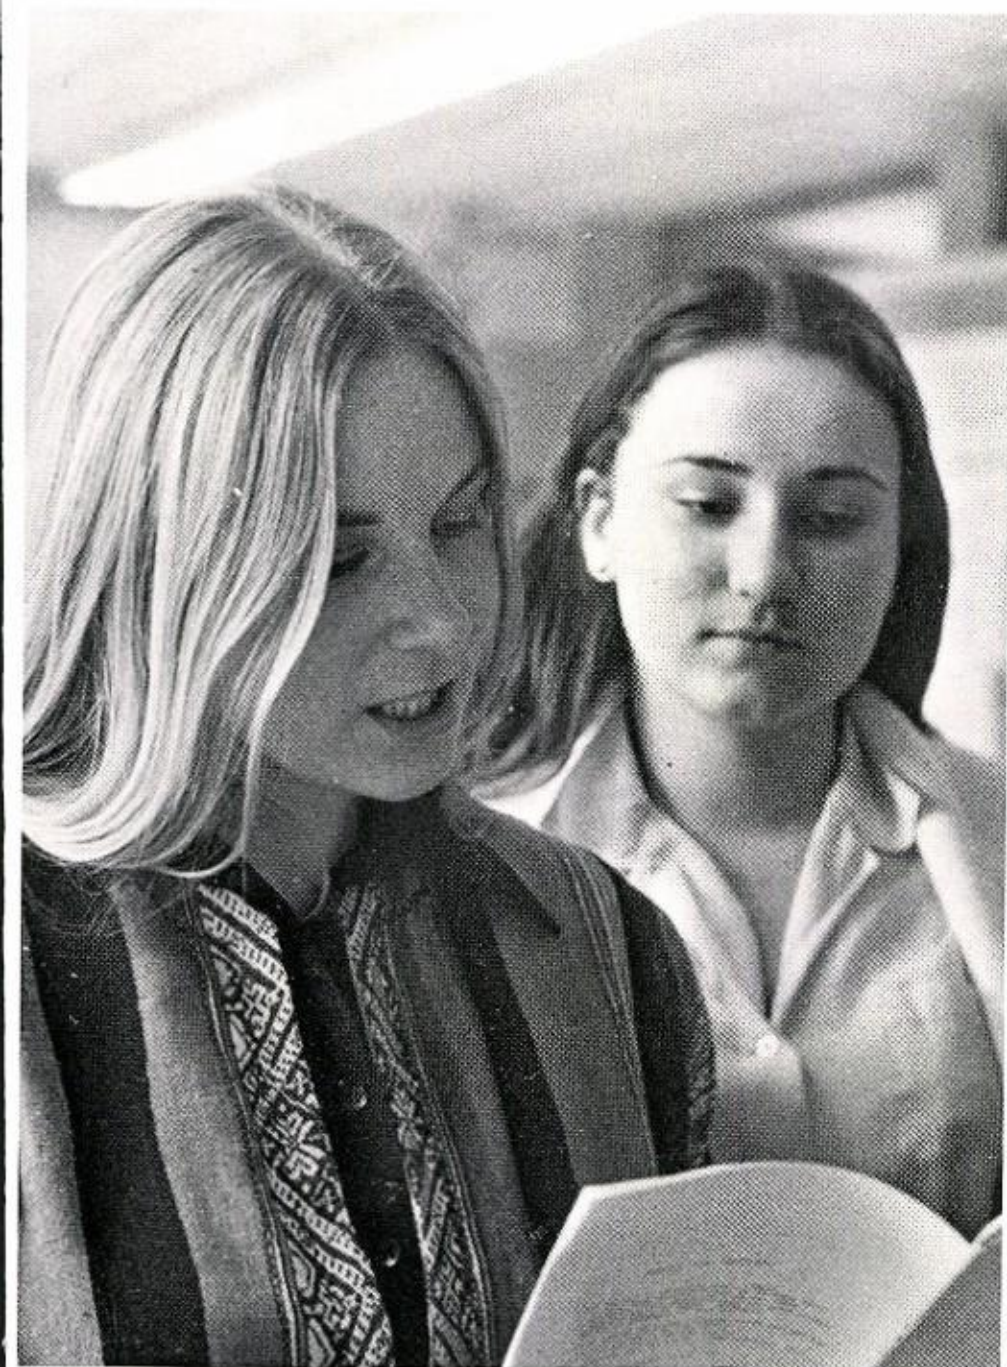

The newspaper ran on a monthly basis with new features in each issue. The yearbook, of course, with hard work and dedication, is what is seen on these pages.

Other members of the Journalism staff were Margaret Mendoza, Maria Fleming (Newspaper editor half-year), Anne Catalani, Sharon Vela, Joan Kanning, Joan Haberer, Denise Pizzini, Nancy Gutierrez, Esther Salinas, Nancy Butler, Mardee Fleet, Helen Graviss, and Mrs. Pfeil on Ads. Lit. Mag. people were Tessie Guido, Jan Jenkins, Karen Grothues, Jill Smith, Beverly Lucas, Debbie Rabel who also contributed to the yearbook. It was lots of hard work, but WE DID IT!!!
